Message of ADG Engineering :

Since we established our company ; when we consider the variety projects we handled , the amount of the work we have completed , the point we have reached can be seen as the proof of what we can do in the future.

ADG Engineering company's short term goal is, not only dealing with the engineering wing, but also take place in the manufacturing field; and complete turn-key projects in respect to exact scheduling,contractual obligations and technical necessities.

In today's business world our company is fully aware of the fact that completing a project is not the main target without the full satisfaction of the clients. We believe, by the references of the fully satisfied customers, our clients and the number of the projects we complete will gradually increase.

Beside the satisfaction of the clients, ADG is aware of ensuring the satisfaction of its staff and sub contractors.

ADG Team assumes itself at the first step of a long journey.We believe that every gained experience will guide us to have a better position in the market.
